486	8,240.4	Zisterndorf	"
Total	72,567.4 tons

Comment. Compared to the last reported period, crude oil shipments from Austria, most of which are directed through Bad Schandau, increased by about 32,000 tons to a total of 72,567 tons. Crude oil imports reached the highest level reported so far. According to the trade agreement concluded with Austria, a monthly average of 47,400 tons of crude oil is to be imported into East Germany. Crude oil imports from Rumania and Hungary, which are not recorded in the present report, usually amount to only a fraction of imports from Austria.
